The Collect of the Day

Set us free, O God, from the bondage of our sins, and give us the liberty of that abundant life which you have made known to us in your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Lesson: Isaiah 40:21-31 please be seated.

Note: Chapters 40-55 in Isaiah is sometimes called "The Book of Consolation". It is a book of comfort which acknowledges the shortcomings of Israel and heralds the power of God to overcome all by the strength of the Almighty. Where is such comfort needed today?

Have you not known? Have you not heard?

Has it not been told you from the beginning?

Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?

It is he who sits above the circle of the earth,

and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers;

who stretches out the heavens like a curtain,

and spreads them like a tent to live in;

who brings princes to naught,

and makes the rulers of the earth as nothing.

Scarcely are they planted, scarcely sown,

scarcely has their stem taken root in the earth,

when he blows upon them, and they wither,

and the tempest carries them off like stubble.

To whom then will you compare me,

or who is my equal? says the Holy One.

Lift up your eyes on high and see:

Who created these?

He who brings out their host and numbers them,

calling them all by name;

because he is great in strength,

mighty in power,

not one is missing.

Why do you say, O Jacob,

and speak, O Israel,

"My way is hidden from the LORD, and my right is disregarded by my God"?

Have you not known? Have you not heard?

The LORD is the everlasting God,

the Creator of the ends of the earth.

He does not faint or grow weary;

his understanding is unsearchable.

He gives power to the faint, and strengthens the powerless.

Even youths will faint and be weary,

and the young will fall exhausted;

but those who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles,

they shall run and not be weary,

they shall walk and not faint.

Psalm 147:1-12, 21c Laudate Dominum

Note: Psalms 146-150 end the Psalter with a refrain of Halleluia! 147 is, in particular, a psalm of delight which exults in the power of God in nature and human beings. Where do you delight in God?

1 Hallelujah!

How good it is to sing praises to our God! *

how pleasant it is to honor him with praise!

2 The LORD rebuilds Jerusalem; ***

he gathers the exiles of Israel.

3 He heals the brokenhearted *

and binds up their wounds.

4 He counts the number of the stars ***

and calls them all by their names.

5 Great is our LORD and mighty in power; *

there is no limit to his wisdom.

6 The LORD lifts up the lowly, ***

but casts the wicked to the ground.

7 Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving; *

make music to our God upon the harp.

8 He covers the heavens with clouds ***

and prepares rain for the earth;

9 He makes grass to grow upon the mountains *

and green plants to serve mankind.

10 He provides food for flocks and herds ***

and for the young ravens when they cry.

11 He is not impressed by the might of a horse; *

he has no pleasure in the strength of a man;

12 But the LORD has pleasure in those who fear him, ***

in those who await his gracious favor.

21 Hallelujah!

The Epistle: 1 Corinthians 9:16-23

Note: Paul's strength flows from his belief in the power of the gospel. He believes it can change lives because it has changed his life and made him an instrument of the good news. Where is Christ working in your life, flowing out into the world?

If I proclaim the gospel, this gives me no ground for boasting, for an obligation is laid on me, and woe to me if I do not proclaim the gospel! For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward; but if not of my own will, I am entrusted with a commission. What then is my reward? Just this: that in my proclamation I may make the gospel free of charge, so as not to make full use of my rights in the gospel.

For though I am free with respect to all, I have made myself a slave to all, so that I might win more of them. To the Jews I became as a Jew, in order to win Jews. To those under the law I became as one under the law (though I myself am not under the law) so that I might win those under the law. To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (though I am not free from God's law but am under Christ's law) so that I might win those outside the law. To the weak I became weak, so that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all people, that I might by all means save some. I do it all for the sake of the gospel, so that I may share in its blessings.

Sequence Hymn: Surely it is God Who Saves...Joyful Noise Band

The Gospel: Mark 1:29-39

Note: Capernaum was just a little fishing village along the shore of the Sea of Galilee. Its remains can be seen today, a tiny smudge of black basalt rock in the shape of little rooms. Nevertheless, out of this small place flowed the power of God to the whole world. Where have you seen God's power overcome a scarcity of resources to create a blessing?

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

After Jesus and his disciples left the synagogue, they entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. Now Simon's mother-in-law was in bed with a fever, and they told him about her at once. He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up. Then the fever left her, and she began to serve them.

That evening, at sundown, they brought to him all who were sick or possessed with demons. And the whole city was gathered around the door. And he cured many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and he would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew him. In the morning, while it was still very dark, he got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed. And Simon and his companions hunted for him. When they found him, they said to him, "Everyone is searching for you." He answered, "Let us go on to the neighboring towns, so that I may proclaim the message there also; for that is what I came out to do." And he went throughout Galilee, proclaiming the message in their synagogues and casting out demons.

Strength in Prayer

Where does our real strength come from? Certainly, we must take care of the body God gave us to keep our strength. Nutritious eating, proper sleep, exercise as we can, and availing ourselves of the healing arts are important toward this resolve.

The health that Jesus offers combines both the physical and the spiritual and one cannot be separated from the other. This is an ancient truth that we seem to have only lately discovered again and even so not deeply enough.

We must tend to our spirit. Spiritual health is not an add-on, or icing on the cake, or a hobby we can do without, it is at the core of our lives as human beings, as spiritual creatures. We discover this from time to time when more strength is required of us than we may believe we have.

But even there, at those straining moments, Jesus leads us as an example. Throughout the gospels he steps away from the center of the storm, from the swirling crowds, and even from his earnest disciples to pray. Sometimes it is in a high place, or in a deserted place but it is always in a place apart, somewhere to place himself apart in holiness and find the strength of the Father.

How is the strength of your prayer life in the Spirit?

UPCOMING EVENTS

Please join us after the service for a potluck across the parking lot in Davis Hall immediately following the service.

Lent Cleanout Challenge:

Each day of Lent find a gently used item in your home (clothing, shoes, books, home goods etc.) that you no longer need and set it aside to donate to those in need. Bring donations to the narthex on Sunday mornings during Lent. Volunteers will collect and sort the donated items and arrange for them to be delivered to nonprofits and mission programs such as No Longer Bound and MUST Ministries. Contact Beth Vaughan elizabeth.m.w.vaughan@gmail or see any ECW member.

Centering Prayer:

We are organizing a Centering Prayer group at St. Clement's! Centering Prayer is a receptive method of silent prayer in which we experience God's presence within us, closer than breathing, closer than thinking, closer than consciousness itself. This method of prayer is both a relationship with God and a discipline to foster that relationship. The group will meet regularly for about half an hour once a week, the specific time TBA. For information can be found at www.comtemplativeoutreachatlanta.com. If interested contact Fr. Jamie (770) 324-2035 or Diane Hodgins (850) 339-8540

GriefShare, a Christ-centered support group seminar for people who have lost a spouse, child, family member, or friend through death. It is a safe, welcoming place where people understand the difficult emotions of grief. Through this 13-week group, people discover what to expect in the days ahead and what's "normal" in grief. Since there are no neat, orderly stages of grief, people learn helpful ways of coping with grief, in all its unpredictability—and gain solid support each step of the way. St. Clement's Episcopal Church group meets Monday (now until April 1) from 3:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m. in Davis Hall. Please join us, you do not have to attend all sessions. Contact Mary Koblasz at marykoblasz@gmail.com or 770-655-4005.
